So, is it Me, or is it them?
I TRY to further Understand,
But it surely Doesn't Make

Sense

Is it destined to be like this? Was IT?

~~It's~~ Easily Unnoticed,
but Noticeably Uneasy; I begin to Wonder.

WITHOUT A DOUBT

Confirmed

So Sometimes they tell Me things,
Often enough it doesn't Make Sense,
Other times it doesn't Apply.

So do I just ignore it Altogether?

URBANIZATION

I do not expect capitalism in any way, they under pay their workers and make millions off sweat shops, if they could allow the people here they would pay their workers and keep the jobs by getting the goods in the u.s.. There is not a country that would allow children and make people work in situations where they can't afford to support their families but they would send the goods to the u.s.. They also restock the shelves with returned goods, some are refurbished and some are damaged they are a complete rip off. I am 100% against these devils
